Ultimate Canberra family escape awaits with the Gold Creek Family Adventure Package

Now that travel is back on everyone's radar, family adventure is too! And Leumeah Lodge in Canberra has joined with the Gold Creek Adventure Ticket to offer the ultimate Canberra family adventure – the Gold Creek Family Adventure Package.

“From prehistoric dinosaurs, to a miniature world, birds and reptiles, our Gold Creek Family Adventure Package offers families four attractions on one ticket, along with accommodation at nearby Leumeah Lodge, giving families a fun and affordable way to explore some of Canberra's best family attractions,” said Sarah Conron, Acting Group Operations Manager Accommodation for Leumeah Lodge.

“Take the kids to walk amongst giants at the National Dinosaur Museum, hold a lizard or meet a baby alligator at the Canberra Reptile Zoo, explore the world in miniature at Cockington Green Gardens, and hand feed some of Australia's birds at the Canberra Walk-In Aviary.

The Gold Creek Family Adventure Package includes the Gold Creek Adventure ticket for four people, with full-day access to Cockington Green Gardens, Canberra Walk-In Aviary, Canberra Reptile Zoo and the National Dinosaur Museum. Plus, accommodation at Leumeah Lodge with several affordable family accommodation options including their Family Room, Twin Room, Family Plus Room and Bunk Room. Rooms start from $326 inclusive of a Gold Creek family Adventure Ticket (4 share.)

David Barker, General Manager from the National Dinosaur Museum, a Gold Creek Adventure Ticket partner, says he's looking forward to welcoming many families to Canberra over the coming months.

"At the National Dinosaur Museum we have one of the largest permanent collections of interactive dinosaurs in Australia, and our location makes us perfect for young families as we are in easy walking distance to Cockington Green Gardens, the Canberra Reptile Zoo and Canberra Walk-In Aviary. Combined with the warm welcome and family accommodation at Leumeah Lodge, the package is a fantastic short break option for families travelling to Canberra," said Mr Barker.
