School's in for Ginners!
Places open for Gin School on the Sapphire Coast of NSW

Lovers of gin now have a new reason to visit the Sapphire Coast of NSW - Gin School!

Gin School is run by partners and co-owners, Karen Touchie and Gavin Hughes of North of Eden, the multi award-winning tiny distillery nestled in the rolling green hinterland of Australia's pristine Sapphire Coast.

"Gin School is definitely the naughtiest school in town and a huge amount of fun. Whether you're a lover of gin, a budding alchemist or simply want to try something new, it's a great afternoon that offers something for everyone," said North of Eden owner, Karen Touchie.

"Classes are run by our Master Distiller, Gavin, and he'll tell you everything you want to know about the 'dark arts' of distillation.

"He'll help you create your very own gin recipe before letting you loose on one of our gorgeous copper stills where you'll transform your ingredients into a bespoke bottle of gin to take home," Karen continued.

Gin School at North of Eden is a three-hour immersive experience and includes a light lunch, three complimentary drinks and, of course, a full-sized bottle of gin that "graduates" can show-off to friends and family. Best of all, students will be learning their craft at a distillery that has won international medals for all of its gins, and whose Oyster Shell Gin was recently named Gin of the Year 2021 by international gin judge and communicator, 'The Gin Queen', Caroline Ashford.

"We usually take Gin School 'enrolments' for groups only with a minimum of six and maximum of 12 students, but we're currently booking in singles and couples for Gin School on two upcoming dates," concluded Karen.

Places are selling fast for the next singles and couples Gin School on Friday 30th September 2022, perfect in the NSW/ACT School Holidays, and again on Friday 27th January 2023, perfect for an Australian Day long weekend. For larger groups of friends planning a trip to the Sapphire Coast, group classes are also available.

North of Eden also has a weekend cellar door offering gin tastings, a great range of cocktails and some amazing country views.
